AUTO ON FIRE.

Firemen of Chemical No. 2 were called to the home of Charles Sanders, 1010 Fourth street, early today when an automobile parked in front of the dwelling caught fire. The car virtually was destroyed. The origin of the fire is undetermined, according to a police report.

FORT CRAILO POST.

Attendance at the membership meeting of Fort Crallo post, American legion, last night in the rooms was large. After the business session a smoker and entertainment was conducted.

Harold J. Mink, commander, has announced a Thanksgiving turkey raffle and "Old Home Night" Monday night in the clubhouse. Avilla Cote, Lawrence Friend and Archie Connors comprise the committee.

BILLIARD CLUB.

William Hepinstal's Billiard club will have its third anniversary celebration Saturday night in the rooms, 300 East street. Fred Scheibly, alderman-elect of the second, will be guest.

A feature of the program will be pocket billiard contests between Ben Livingston and Frank Armstrong, 100 points; Oscar Mahar and Adam McElroy, 25 points; a dart contest between two teams, captained by Jess Gammell and Mr. Hepinstal, and a boxing "out" between Eddie Devaney and Joseph Carmallo. Preceding the program a roast pig dinner will be served.

The committee in charge includes Byron McGinniss, Edward Manno, Charles Stevens and Orville Shaver.

VISITING LECTURER.

Capt. Joseph Davies of Bayonne, N. J., will be in charge of services Sunday morning and afternoon in the Salvation Army headquarters, 913 Broadway. His topic for the morning service at 11 a. m. will be "Greater Things" and "Prayer" at the night service at 8 p. m.

ST. PAUL'S FOOD SALE.

The Ladies Aid society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will have a food sale Saturday from 9 to 5 p. m. in the Sunday school rooms.

REPAIRS NEAR FINISH.

Renovations to the E. F. Hart House fire house, East and Herick streets, are virtually completed. George Zepf, contractor, has announced. The repairs included the reinforcing of the floor, widening of the entrance and placing of new doors.

MISS KAUFMAN BETTER.

Miss Elizabeth Kaufman of Hillview, who recently underwent an operation in the Memorial hospital, is reported improving. Dr. A. P. Van Loon of Albany is in attendance.

WOMEN G. O. P. TO MEET.

The Women's Republican club will meet tonight in the City Hall, John Hall, president, will be in charge.

NAG NAGS POLICE COWBOY.

EVANSTON, Ill.—Policeman Phil Reimen used to be a cowpuncher. In the late hours of a recent night, a horse roamed a large, nibbling grass from some of the best lawns in town. Reimen, the cowpuncher, told his companions, Officers Bell and Bussan, that he would capture the horse in no time at all.

JACK SHARKEY AND DAUGHTER

AT MALDEN, MASS. Jack Sharkey, principal contender for the heavyweight crown abandoned by Gene Tunney, with his four-year-old daughter, Dorothy, for whom he prayed in the mud and rain at the tomb of Father Patrick Power in Holy Cross cemetery. The numerous "cures" which have been reported as rewarding supplicants at the priest's grave led Sharkey to seek a cure for his little daughter who was born blind in one eye.
