SCP auditioning for 'Critic's Choice'

Schenectady Civic Players will hold try-outs, open to the public, Tuesday and Thursday, March 12 and 14, at 7:15 p.m. at the Playhouse, 12 South Church Street, for Ira Levin's comedy, "Critic's Choice," to be staged May 10, 11, 15 and 19, under the direction of Ted J. Rucinski, Latham. Featuring four women, two men and a boy aged about 12, "Critic's Choice" starred the late Henry Fonda on Broadway as a drama reviewer whose duties bring him to a point where he faces the task of reviewing his wife's play. The fact that an earlier review of his first wife's acting sabotaged that marriage adds to the professional and personal complexities facing him.

Anyone interested in trying-out or working on the backstage staff is invited to attend one or both evening's auditions. "Critic's Choice" will be SCP's fifth and final play of the 57th sea-The fourth production, "The Three Sisters," by Chekhov, will be staged by Kathryn Poppino of Schenectady on March 22, 23 and 27-30, at 8:00 p.m. and March 31 at 2:30 p.m.
